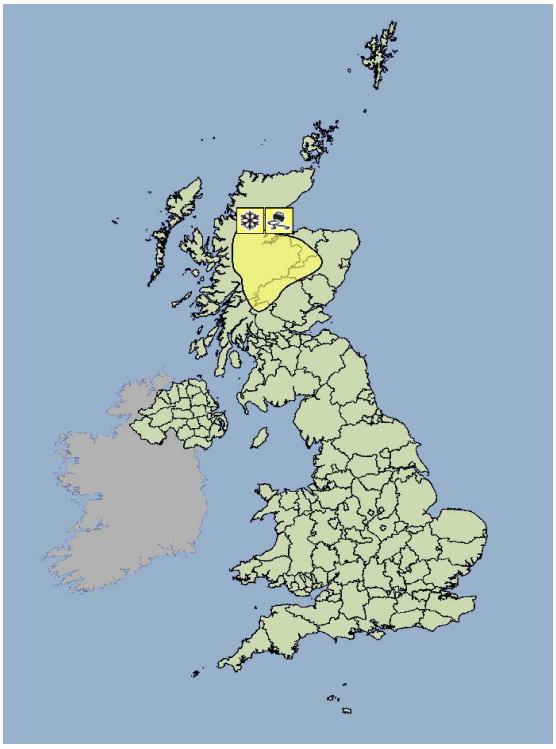
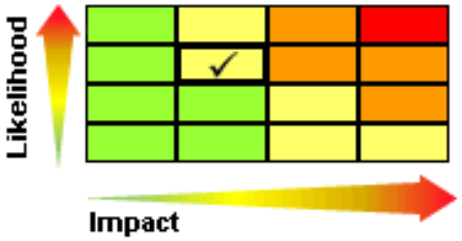
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Showery rain, sleet or snow will spread east across northern Scotland overnight. Most of the snow will fall on ground above 200 m where 2-5 cm is likely with smaller amounts across lower ground. Sleet or wet snow falling on frozen surfaces will also bring a risk of ice.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Snow and Ice

Valid from 00:05 on Fri, 09th Mar 2018 until 10:00 on Fri, 09th Mar 2018

Snow and icy stretches are likely to affect some roads and pavements.

Some roads and railways are likely to be affected with longer journey times by road, bus and train services. In addition some injuries from slips and falls on icy surfaces are possible.
